MAYOR'S MESSAGE

GALE KATCHUR

Mayor, City of Fort Saskatchewan

Welcome to the 2025-26 season at the Shell Theatre. This year's Performance Series features 23 outstanding shows—some from names you already know and others you'll come to love.

Over the years, the Shell Theatre has played an important role in connecting our community through culture, creativity, and shared experiences. It's incredible to see how our city continues to grow and thrive artistically, and we're proud to welcome so many national and regional touring artists to this Fort Saskatchewan stage.

While you're here, we also invite you to explore the Alberta Lottery Fund Art Gallery just outside the theatre, where the talent of local visual artists is on display.

There's always something happening at the Shell Theatre. We hope you'll join us—check out our full lineup of performances and community events, bring a friend, and experience the incredible talent this space has to offer.

We can't wait to welcome you.

ABOUT OUR SEASON

Our Shell Theatre team has been working hard, and we are excited to announce our 2025-26 Performance Series Season. With great variety, outstanding talent and artists that you know and love, there really is something for everyone this year.

We hear time and time again that our patrons love the intimate design of the Shell Theatre. With top-of-the-line audio, intricate lighting, and seats that are mere feet from the performers, the “Shell Theatre Experience” is unforgettable. We have leaned into that a bit more this year creating unique once in a lifetime events that endear our patrons to these world-class talents.

You'll be among the first to see a documentary about the life of Canadian Rock Royalty... Bif Naked, and then, share in a raw live performance of her biggest hits. Classic rock hits by one of Canada's greatest bands when Glass Tiger strips down their catalogue to their most intimate and interactive ways. And, be moved to tears by the sheer vocal talents of Ireland's Celtic Tenors in their triumphant return to Alberta. And these are just a few of the many fantastic artists joining us in Fort Saskatchewan this season!

JOSH GENNINGS

Supervisor, Shell Theatre & Events

Connect with these imaginative storytellers as they share new music, tales of life on the road, and personal experiences with our eager audiences. Get your tickets early! You will not want to miss these special moments as they become memories forever, famously created, right here in your community... at the Shell Theatre.

JESS MOSKALUKE – LIFE FOR ME TOUR

Internationally celebrated artist Jess Moskaluke continues to break barriers in country music with her powerful voice, pop-infused hooks, and sonic versatility. Her new single, "Life For Me," offers a first glimpse into her forthcoming new music—elevated, personal, joyful, and full of spirited authenticity—marking an exciting new chapter in her career. The first Canadian female country artist since Shania Twain to achieve Canadian Platinum single status with the hit "Cheap Wine and Cigarettes," Moskaluke celebrated the 10th anniversary of its release last year with newly reimagined mixes of the fan-favourite track. She has since gone on to earn Canadian Gold certifications for "Take Me Home," "Kiss Me Quiet," "Knock Off," and her first NUMBER ONE, "Country Girls." Notably, she became the first Canadian female country artist since 2008 to have a song in the Top 3 with "Drive Me Away."

THE WOODSHED

FT. JOHN WORT HANNAM AND T. BUCKLEY

Acclaimed roots songwriters John Wort Hannam and T. Buckley make up The Woodshed, a modern folk duo based in Alberta, whose name refers to the beginning of Buckley and Hannam's collaboration - woodshedding songs together during a residency at the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity in 2017. After a captivating performance at the 2023 Canadian Folk Music Awards, Buckley and Hannam finally decided to ratify their collaboration and bring The Woodshed to life. Together they bring a beautiful vocal blend of brotherly harmonies combined with gutsy and sophisticated song writing alongside intricate guitar playing.

BALLET KELOWNA PRESENTS:

THE COWBOY ACT SUITE & OTHER WORKS

"The Cowboy Act Suite and Other Works" program features a stunning lineup of signature works from Ballet Kelowna's contemporary ballet repertoire. With Cameron sink^{wə} Fraser-Monroe's compelling "taqəš", Guillaume Côté's mesmerizing "Boléro", and Fraser-Monroe's satirical "The Cowboy Act Suite", this high-energy program promises to please a wide range of spectators.

Set to several songs by Polaris Prize-winning composer and singer Jeremy Dutcher, "taqəš" follows the traditional story "Raven Returns the Water," centred around ɔ̃hoh (raven) and walθ (frog); Guillaume Côté's "Bolero" features breathtaking lifts and virtuosic choreography; "The Cowboy Act Suite" is a work that flips the script on a classic Cowboy Story. See why these compelling pieces resonate with audiences across Canada in a beautiful night of ballet.
