The Adrian Zorzut School of Fine Art

The Adrian Zorzut School of Fine Art is a vibrant hub for creativity and artistic excellence. Rooted in a mentorship-based model, the school provides individual instruction tailored to each student's current projects—beginners receive guided assignments, while experienced artists are encouraged to bring their own ideas to fruition.

Students are empowered to embrace any style, free from stylistic constraints. The school builds upon solid fundamentals in drawing, painting (brush and palette knife), and delivers the technical guidance necessary to realize their unique artistic visions.

With flexible class options—weeknight and weekend sessions, plus live model mornings—students of all levels (from recent grads to retirees) learn at their own pace with no pressure. Drop-ins are welcome, offering a firsthand glimpse into their supportive creative community.
